

Dear SWLS Exhibitor,

The Southwest Livestock Show is extending an opportunity for all seniors to participate in our scholarship program to help further your education or future business plans after high school. This scholarship will be available to high school seniors who graduated in the spring of 2026. All recipients must be high school graduates. This money can be applied to any institute of higher education, vocational training, or business venture. Scholarships will be awarded according to availability and need.

All applications must be turned into the committee no later than September 2, 2026. No late applications will be considered! Please send or email your application to:

Katherine Ross

We are looking forward to receiving your application. We wish you luck at the SWLS as well as in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Katherine Ross
Scholarship Committee Chairman

2026 Scholarship Application Requirements:

1. Must be a member of 4-H or FFA
2. Must have participated in the SWLS at least 2 years of secondary school or equivalent (9th 12th grade).
3. Must be a 2026 high school graduate.
4. Application must be accompanied by a copy of a 2026 diploma or completed 2026 GED documentation.
5. Application must be accompanied by two letters of recommendation.
6. Application must be accompanied by a letter that includes your personal experiences with the SWLS. The letter should be addressed to “Scholarship Donors”. Copies of these letters will be sent to those that may be interested in donating to the scholarship program.
7. Recipients must provide help at the sale on Saturday. Volunteer information will be texted to you to sign up for a time slot.

This scholarship is applicable to any higher education, vocational training (post high school), or business opportunities.

Scholarships will be awarded by availability and need.

Scholarships will be judged by presentation, leadership opportunities, and applicant’s responses. The letter to the donors needs to be ready to be sent directly to donors. Please check for grammatical and spelling errors.
